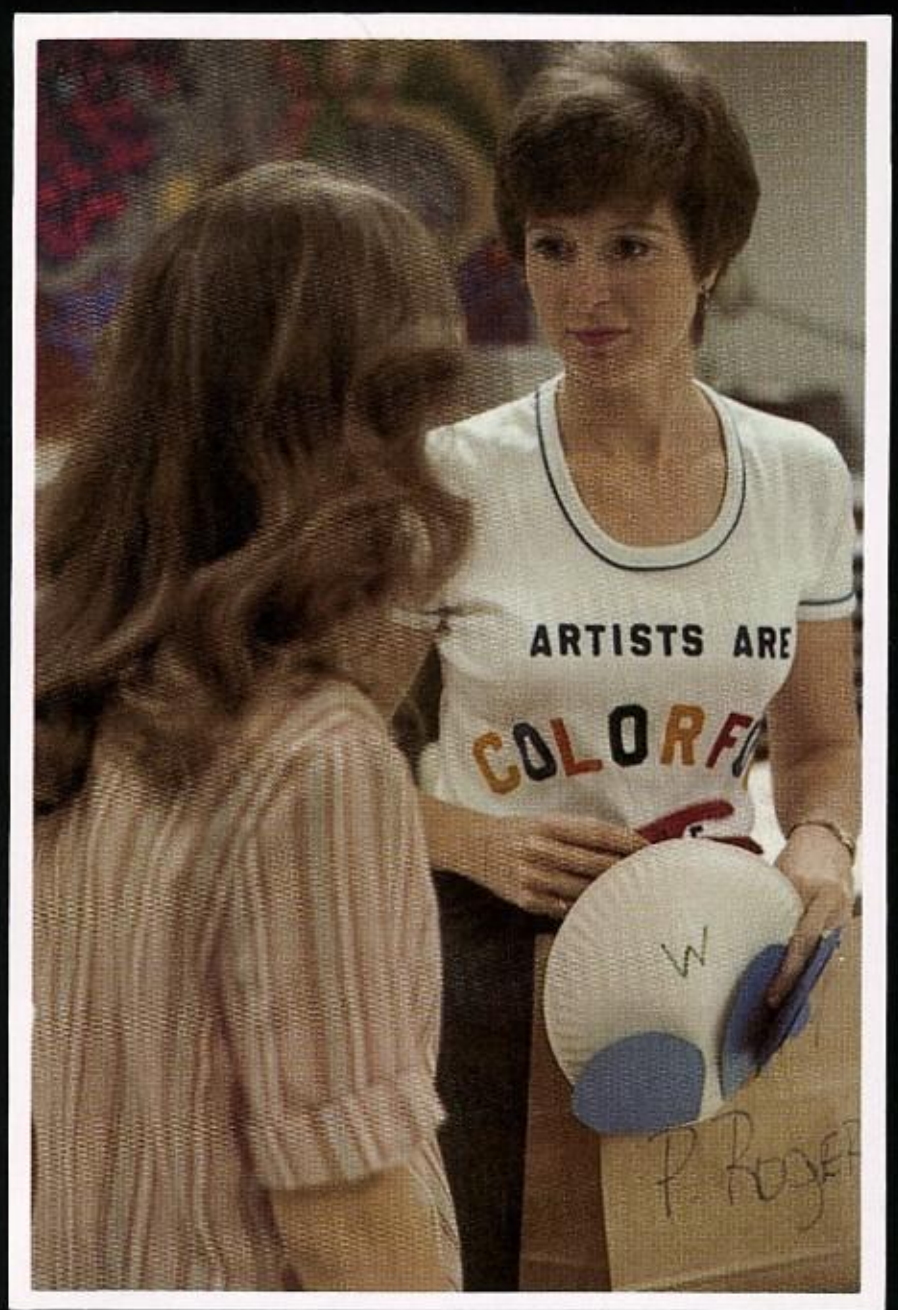
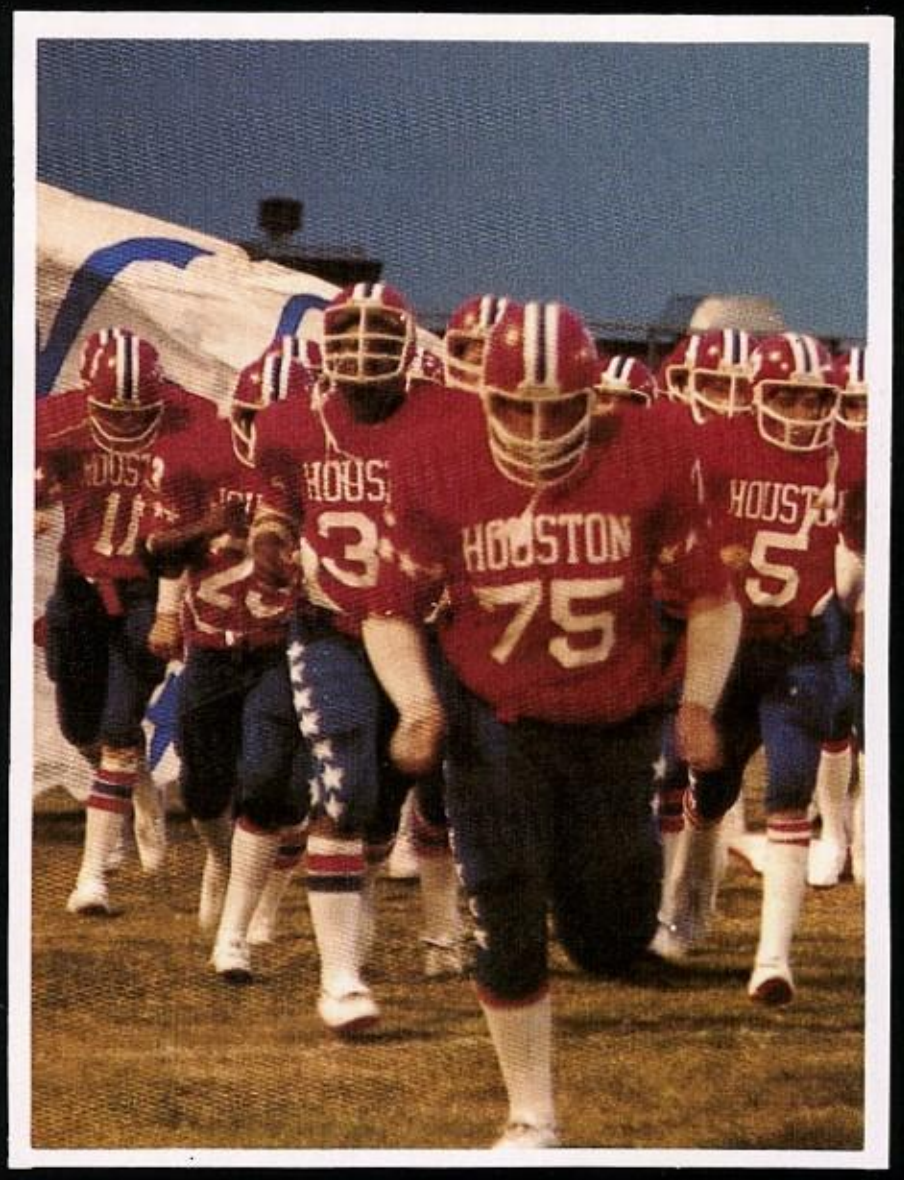
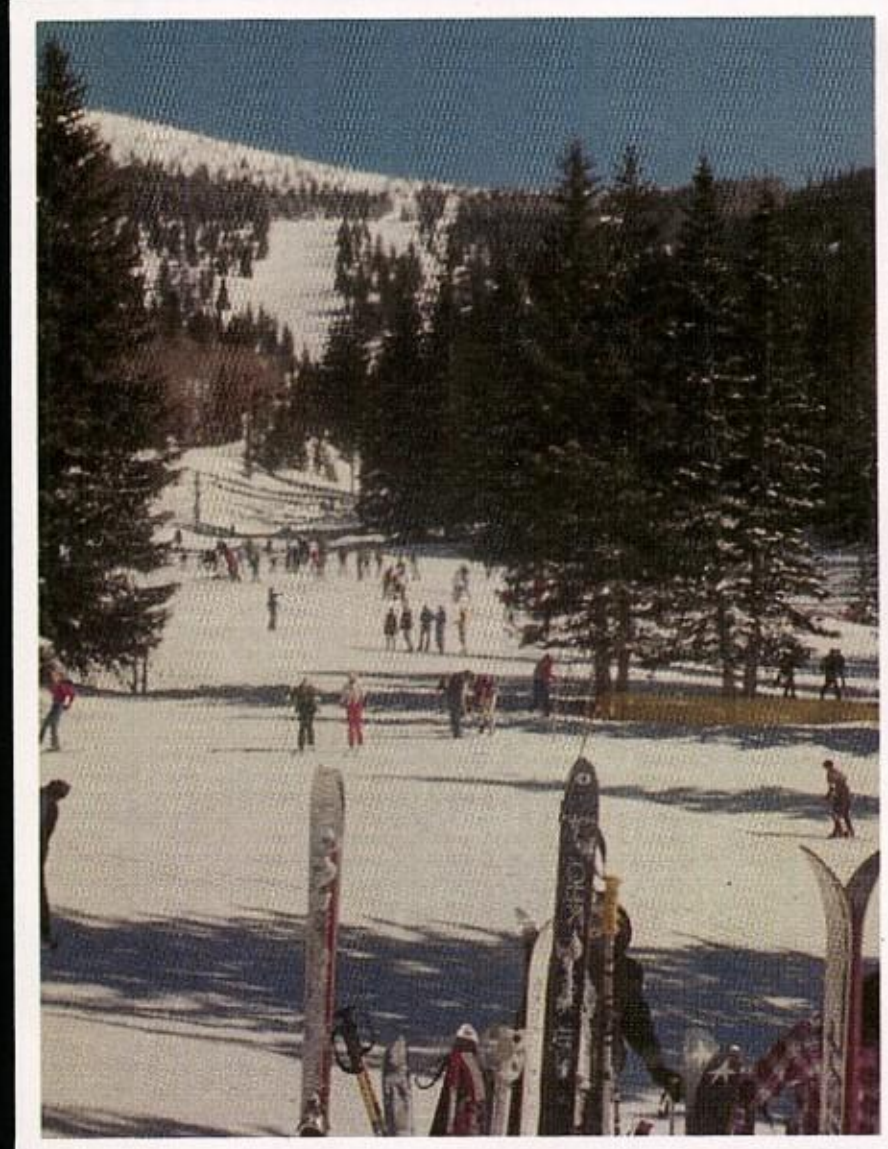
As the Metroplex continued to grow, building and expansion became ever apparent features around the Sam Houston campus. Each morning students were greeted with the rattle and roar of bulldozers, backhoes, and cranes.

Mounds of upturned black dirt occupied the old field which had previously been host solely to the water tower. The presence of construction workers, equipment, and lumber became a familiar site on Sam Houston Drive.



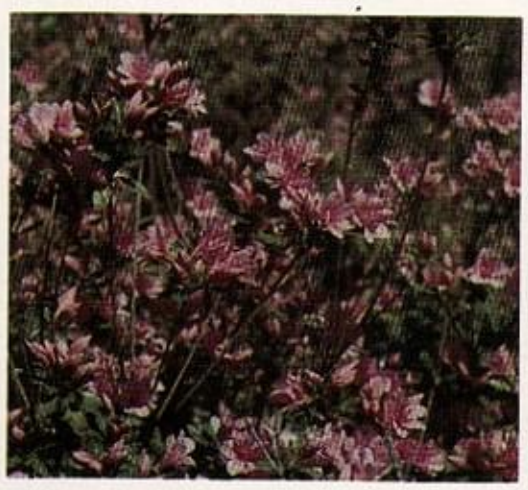




Santa Fe

Once visible to passing traffic from Arkansas Lane, the front of the school now lay hidden by chimneys and housetops. But, the main focus of attention was the completion of the La Petite day care center which became Sam's first next door neighbor.

As young children appeared, we realized our lifestyle of speeding to school at 8:25 a.m. would have to change.



Along with the building, changes came on a world-wide scope — events which had a direct bearing on our own lives. The close of the '70's was a time of pressure for all Americans. Odd-even gas rationing, the undying surge of inflation, and the upcoming presidential election proved to be very trying.

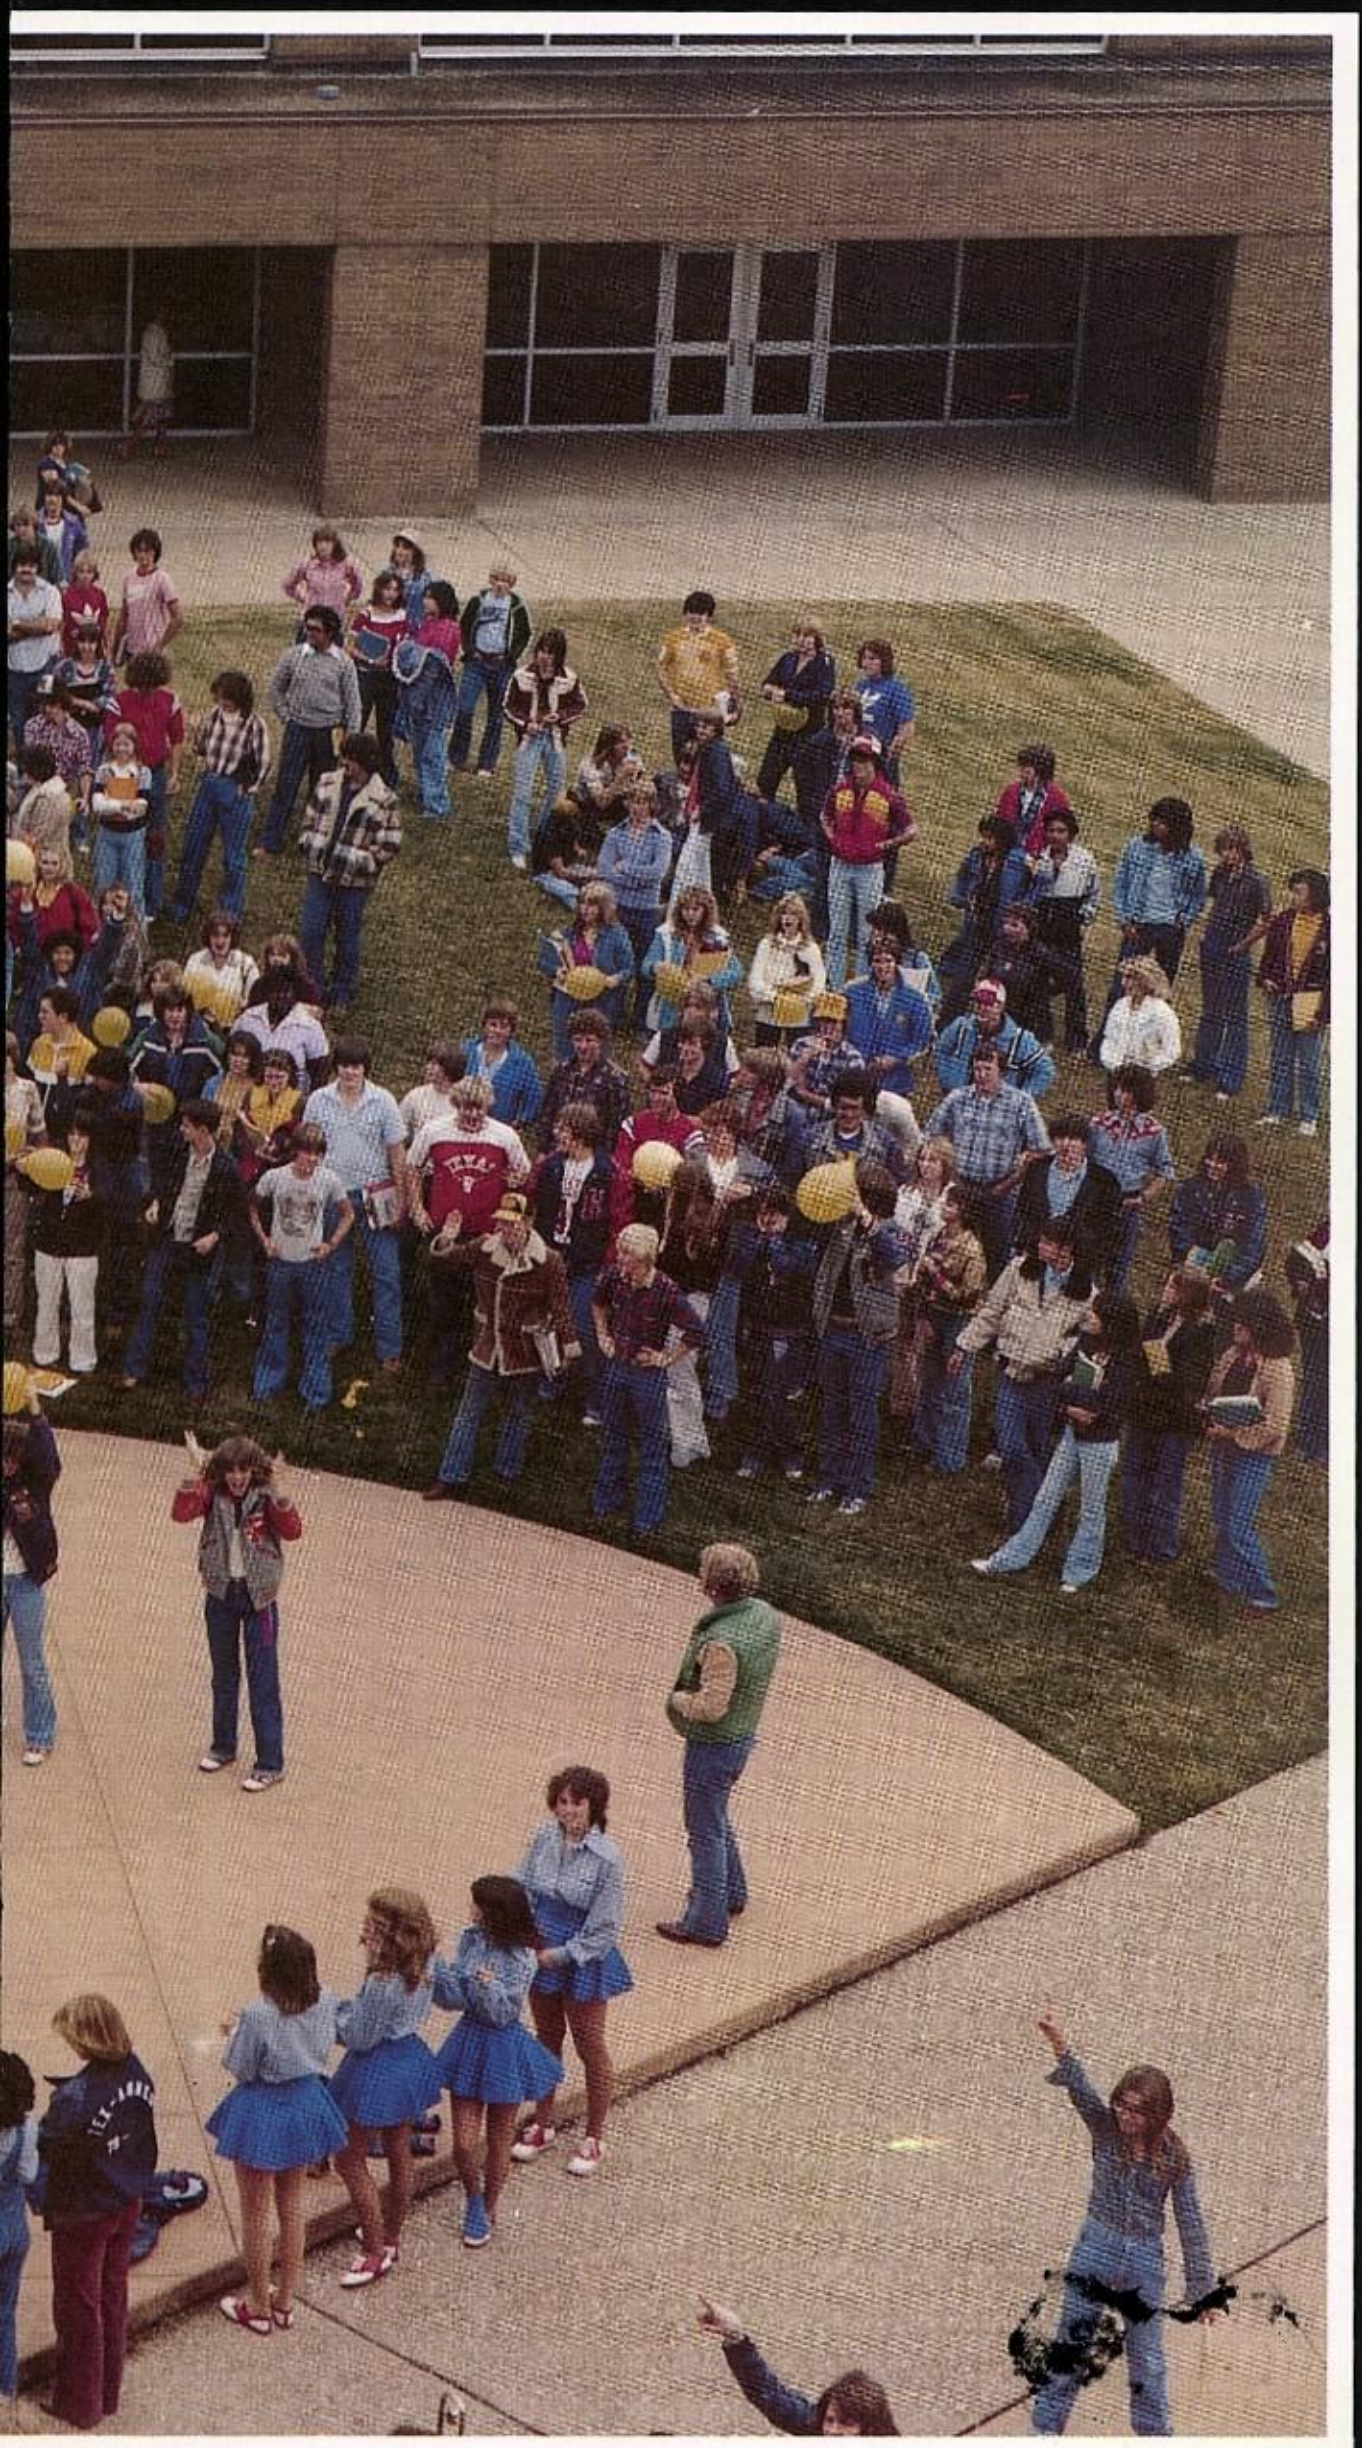
New Year's Day ushered in another decade, but economic problems did not disappear. Gold sky-rocketed to record highs of more than $800 an ounce, while gasoline passed the $1 per gallon mark.

The arrival of the '80's found the world in a state of chaos.

Iran, which shocked the free world by taking American hostages, became the center of unrest in the Middle East.

But, troubles in Iran only sparked international aggression. The Soviet invasion of Afghanistan and Pakistan threatened the security of Persian oil reserves. Concern focused on the Moscow Olympics as athletes questioned whether to attend.

SAM HOUSTON
HIGH SCHOOL



Sam students were in no way exempt from world or national problems; we felt the "crush," too. Talk of the draft and the possibility of war hit hard. Would the '80's give us a chance to unite and grow?

Heard as the "Voice of Freedom," Dallasite Jim Kirk's musical inspiration gave us a sense of pride and a reminder that "we're the best thing this world's got."

So, as we look ahead and hope the future will bring a brighter tomorrow, we will keep on building: building and paving the way into the 1980's.

"Hurray for Howdy Day!" Student Congress' rendition of this famous old song began Howdy Day activities. Mouse ears were seen on Big Sam's roof on Tuesday, Sept. 11. They served only as a false alarm, as the words "Sing, sophomore, sing!" were not heard until the next day.

Juniors, still not the tallest Texans, sang too, making the seniors' last Howdy Day worthwhile.

A pep-rally skit, in which the Mickies were christened Texans, ended the week's activities. A rising starlette was discovered in Mrs. Yvonne Davis, as she portrayed herself, guiding Mickey to the new light of Texanhood.

"It was like a dream come true . . ." Climaxing a spirited week of activities, Laura Estes was named Homecoming Queen during half-time ceremonies of the Denton game.

Early Homecoming Speeds Preparations

"It can't be Homecoming already — I don't have a date yet!" Students rushed up their social plans to make the Sept. 28 Homecoming. Texans rallied their spirit despite the absence of the traditional floats.

The sophs took hall decoration honors with their rainbow-filled display entitled "The Sky is the Limit." Spirit link competition was won by the juniors who painfully parted with their extra money for several weeks. Seniors unified to capture the spirit stick.

It is all of the Texans together, however — past, present and future — that make Sam such a great place to come home to!

(C) Exes admire Ms. Evelyn Muelder's homeroom decorations which received second place. (D) The Texan Band plays the fight song at the Homecoming courtyard pep rally.

Texans Show Sam Spirit Always # 1

"Do you mean it starts at 9:15 instead of 8:15?" Pep rally times were varied several times to encourage student participation.

Cheerleaders and bellguards worked throughout the week to prepare a spirit-filled 45 minutes. Captain's Songs, Players of the Week, and skits were all part of the finished product.

It was not unusual seeing Coach Tommy Cantrell, as the Grinch Who Stole Homecoming, or Uncle Bud with pie on his suit.

Seniors dominated spirit-stick competition most Fridays. Proud Texans closed each session with the stirring alma mater.

Cast Block

Cathy Wileman — Alice; James Healy — Lewis, Madhatter; Terry LeVesque — Red Queen, White Queen; John Bolding — March Hare; Lori Miller — Duchess; Mindy Money — White Knight; Chuck Randolph — Caterpillar, King; Brenda Sisney — Chesire Cat; Linda Phillips — Humpty Dumpty; Katherine Penrod — Dodgson, Dormouse; Kelly Hill — Lory; Kim Miller — Dodo; Dan Pratt — Mouse; Shannon Albright — Frog; Tim Vaughan — Duck; Kelly Saltsman — Crab.

" . . . where childhood dreams are twined in memory's mystic band." The Drama Department gave audiences a different view through the looking glass in the fall children's production.

Attendance at the show, which ran Oct. 6 and 13, was approximately 1100 and the Thespians profited by $600. "Alice In Wonderland", a successful experiment in a new type of children's theater, appealed to both an adult's humor and a child's imagination.

" . . . but still, when I hear the word 'father', it matters." Senior James Healy became Gene Garrison, a son struggling to gain his father's love, in "I Never Sang For My Father." Terry LeVesque and Chuck Randolph portrayed his parents.

Dec. 6-7 were set as the dates for the fall drama production. It was presented as a double-bill of two Tony-Award-winning plays. "The Shadow Box," the second show, later went into one-act competition.

Fine performances, with high dramatic intensity, spurred audience acceptance of both plays.

(A) Chuck Randolph, portrayed as Tom Garrison, worries about his wife's health. (B) Terry LeVesque, as Margaret Garrison, lies on her death bed and is cared for by the nurse, Gigi Dull. (C) James Healy, as Gene Garrison, talks to his mother about his father's health. (D) Brenda Sisney, portrayed as Alice, and Gene Garrison discuss what they will do with Tom Garrison, who is senile.

Drama Presents Award-Winning 'Shadow Box'

"People don't want to let go . . . They think it's supposed to last forever." "The Shadow Box," the Drama Department's award-winning one-act play, dealt with terminal illness and the way it affects those touched by it.

Winning at district and area levels, the play went to Denton in April for regional competition. James Healy was named best actor at both district and area contests.

Terry LeVesque and Linda Phillips were members of the all-star cast at district and area, and Terry won regional recognition. Also earning honors for their performances were John Bolding and Katherine Penrod.

Ice Sends 'Dolly' To Fourth Night

" . . . find her an empty lap, fellas, Dolly'll never go away again." Sam's stage continued to possess the spirit of Hello Dolly after its four night run which ended Feb. 11. A command performance was added on Monday as a result of icy weather the previous weekend.

Over 1500 attended the all-school musical with a cast and crew of 64. Mr. Louis Harris and Mr. Don Blankenship directed the production with choreographic help from Mr. Zac Ward of Creative Arts Theatre School.

"He's coming to get you, Barbara!" Leaving nothing to its viewers' imaginations, "The Night of the Living Dead" highlighted a night of Halloween-eve movies. Student Congress' second annual dress-up day followed, and Texans responded with a variety of garb. Costumes were judged during both lunches. Prizes were awarded to the scariest and funniest attire. Teachers participated also to provide some of the biggest laughs. Halloween truly proved that in the halls of Sam Houston some are stranger than others.

Texans Party, Relax in Style

"Let's go to the lake today, a party tonight, and the park tomorrow." Sound familiar? It does to Sam's students whose weekends are filled with everything under the sun.

Saturdays were spent swimming at Grapevine Lake while Sundays saw many relaxing at Randol Mill.

On weekend nights, Cooper seemed to be the center of all activities. Many got together with all their friends at Char King or McDonald's. It seemed that on the "let's go party ticket" Sam's students had a year long campaign.

(A) Ken Jones and Lane Carlisle cruise Randol Mill. (B) Susan Graham, Cindy Mann, and Kay Goodenough become suddenly ill with "Summer Fever" and head for the lake. (C) Eugene Roznos and Licia Anderson do the two-step at a country and western dance.

Girls Treat Special Guy

"Where do I want to go? I guess Reunion Tower will be okay." Guys got the special treatment they deserved during Twirp Week. Special activities were held each day and included cartoons, a feature film, and Sam's first annual Sadie Hawkins Race.

A Friday night dance concluded a week of reversed roles. Twirp licenses were required for girls to participate in the week's activities with Twirp-o-grams also available for a written proposition.

(A) Kisser Kop, Mark Farrar, demands money from Cindy Bradley for her actions with her boyfriend, Phil Purdy. (B) Sophomore Cathy Coufal shows off the Twirp-o-gram bought for her boyfriend. Clubs Jump to Benefit Heart Association

"Not last night but the night before, 44 robbers came knockin' at my door." Chants proved useful for forgetting fatigue during the three-hour Jump Rope-a-Thon for the American Heart Association.

Sponsored by Student Congress, 12 clubs participated with one or more six-man teams.

Cosmetology collected the greatest amount in pledges per person, and each team member received a warm-up suit. Total pledges collected amounted to $4000.

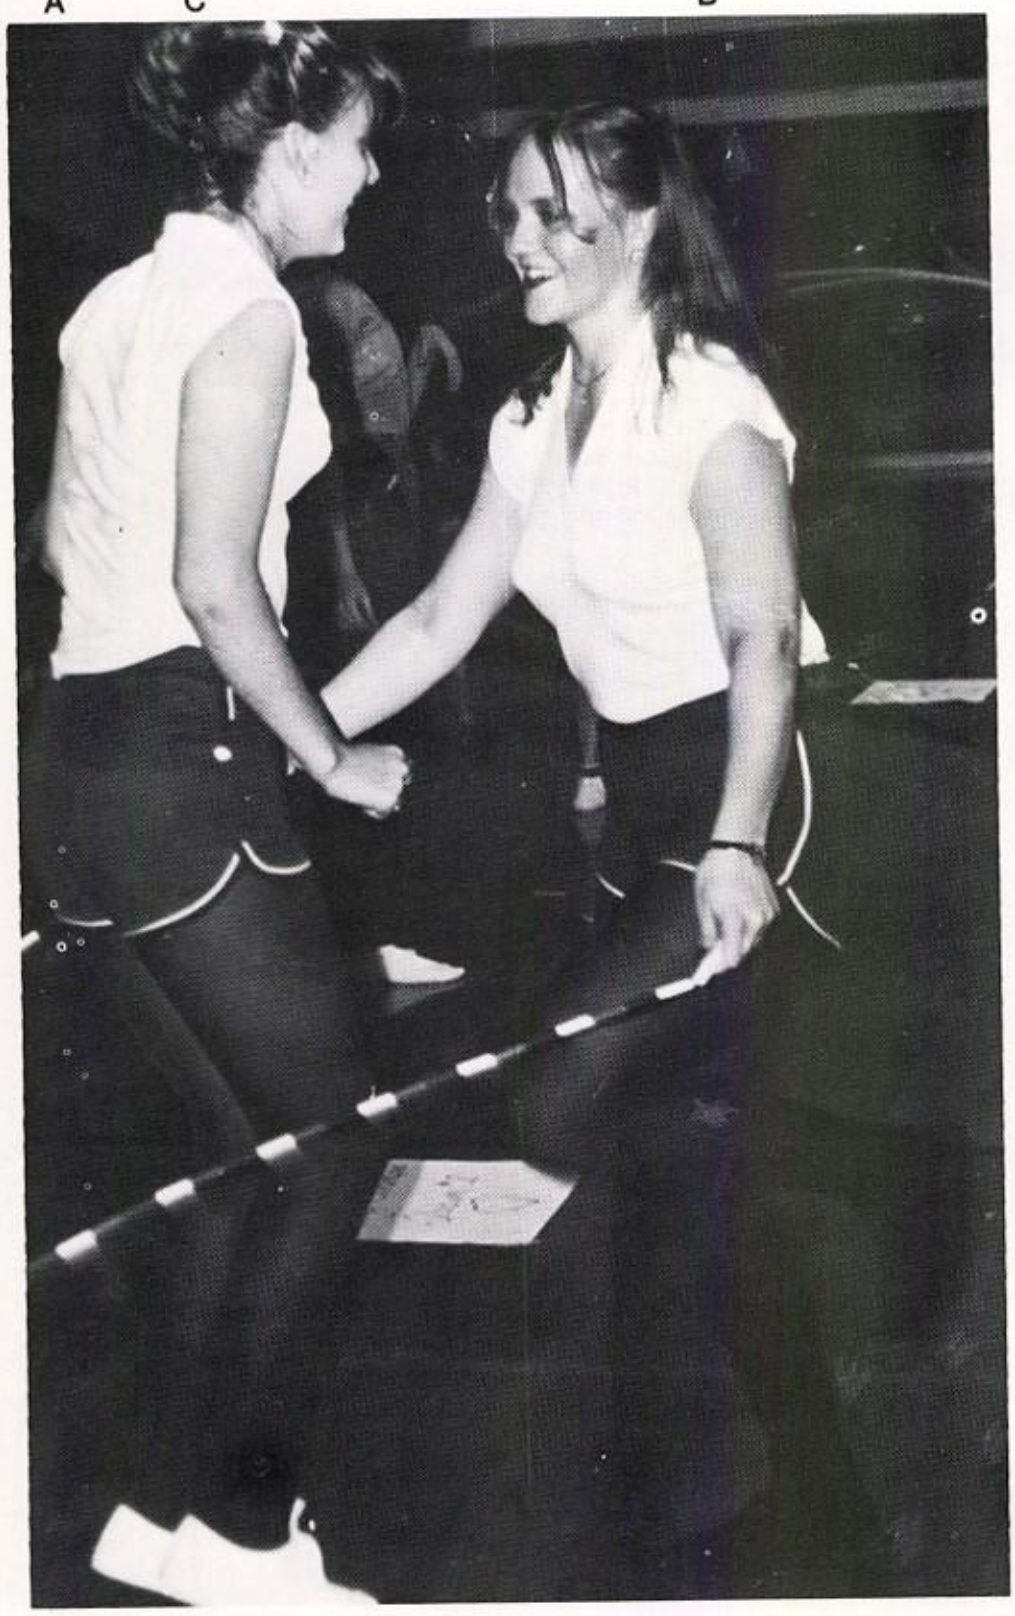
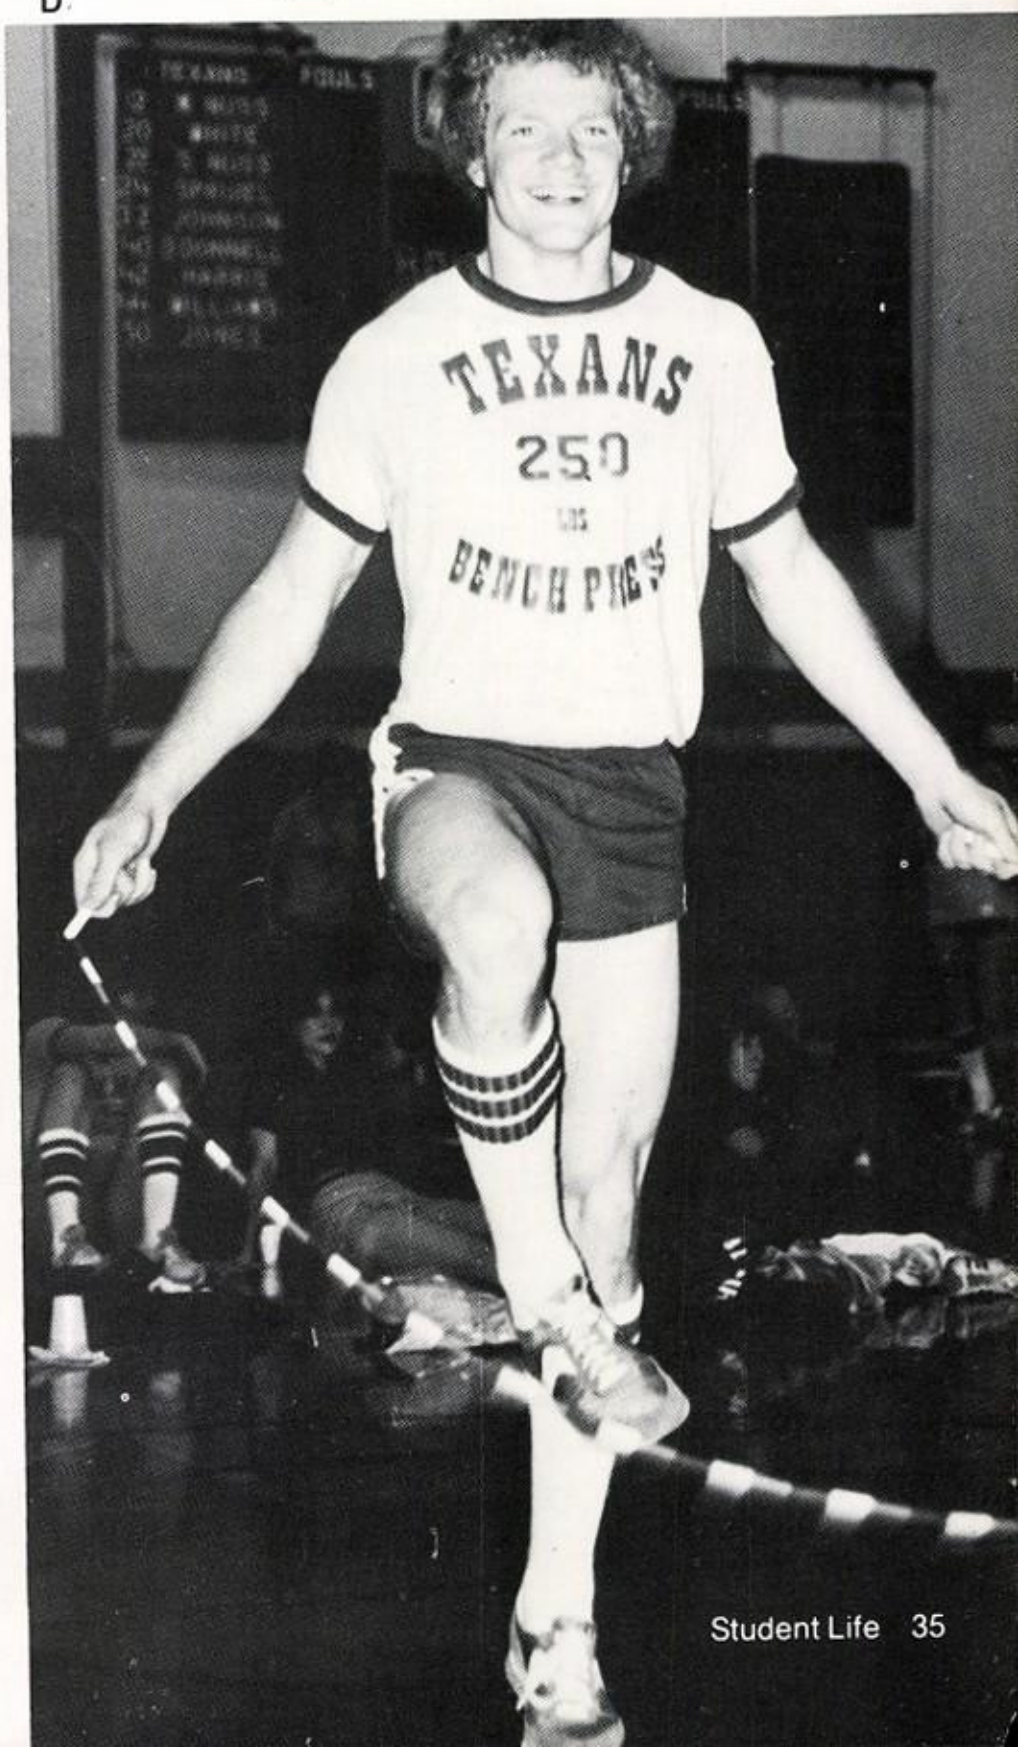
(A) Kay Goodenough appears to be jumping while standing still. (B) Marc Taddonio gets tangled up in his rope. (C) Cindy Bradley and Tonnie Brown find jumping two is more fun. (D) For Mitch Pettigrew, jumping is the next best thing to bench press.





Texans Go Western for Carnival Fun

"Awright podnuh, I'm a holdin' a warrant fer yer arrest." Senior sheriffs led outlaws to their jail as Sam was transformed into the Ol' West, May 3.

Many clubs participated in Texan Day activities, most having booths at the evening courtyard carnival.

Tex-Annes solicited dances in their saloon, while choir's Yee Haw Show provided entertainment in the auditorium. Student Congress sponsored a club raffle, giving away several dinners and a TV during the night.

Attire during the day was strictly western as few "yankees" dared to appear.

Assembly, Breakfast Rate '11'

"It's a take! Print it!" On May 7, audiences at the 1980 Cherokee Assembly witnessed the making of the motion picture "11." Awards and scholarships were presented to verify the fact that Sam does indeed rate 11 on a scale of one to 10.

Ms. Judy Baskey and Mrs. Betty Brown were honored as they shared the assembly's highest award, the Cherokee dedication.

Ending the assembly, a seven minute radio recording was reminiscent of high points of the school year.

(A) Mrs. Betty Brown and Ms. Judy Baskey are announced as the Cherokee dedication recipients. (B) 1980-81 bellguards are Karen Robinson, Mamie Bush, Mike Gonzales, John Stedman, and Mick White as Long Tall Texan. (C) Director Blake Seaton orders stuntman Kent Rice off stage.

". . . talented and graceful — femininity . . . she's our Miss Texan — talent pageant queen." Senior Lori Miller was crowned Miss Texan, March 7 as emcee Trey Hillman sang the pageant's title song.

"Magic To Do" was the theme of the talent contest in which 10 finalists, of 42 girls auditioning, participated.

Kim Pucek and Carla Williams were named first and second runners-up. Ten senior guys served as escorts for the contestants as well as performing magic tricks and a rousing routine to "Comedy Tonight."

"I am proud to hold the title because of the school itself and the people that make up Sam Houston." Kent Rice, Mr. Sam Houston, never found school involvement difficult as he was class officer for three years.

Boosting spirit at pep rallies and games as the Long Tall Texan, Kent was also named Mr. School Spirit.

Kent was a two year member of band and spent the same amount of time on the Cherokee sports staff.

Participation in A Cappella Choir led him to roles in "Once Upon A Mattress" and "Scrooge."

"I can't explain the feeling, but it's good!" Kim Parker's enthusiasm for school activities carried her to the title of Miss Sam Houston.

Like her counterpart, she was a class officer as well as a member of Student Congress.

Kim served well on the tennis team for three years and was named Most Valuable Player.

In September, she was chosen Girl of the Month for involvement in various clubs including FHA, FLC, and Newcomers. Kim was also part of A Cappella Choir and the show, "Hello Dolly."

"Keep that spirit up; keep that spirit up!" Sam Houston cheerleaders and bellguards did just that throughout the year. Whether near the playing field or in the halls, their voices were heard.

SMU Summer Camp proved successful as cheerleaders brought home several awards. A super star ribbon and an award of excellence placed them among the top squads.

Bellguards continued to protect "Big Sam" and "Sam's Son" at the pep rallies.

This was the year of the return of the Long Tall Texan. Kent Rice stepped onto the stilts to continue an old tradition.

Cheerleader, Long Tall Texan Win Honor

"S-P-I-R-I-T, spirit. Let's hear it!" Seniors Kent Rice and Laura Estes were often heard as they were elected to represent Sam Houston as Mr. and Miss School Spirit.

Journalism asked seniors to nominate candidates for the honor, Nov. 8. Winners were chosen in a school-wide election and announced at the Haltom pep rally. A Senior Class officer, Kent was Sam's Long Tall Texan. He could be seen twirling his gun and hat, especially during the school's theme song.

A varsity cheerleader, Laura was also 1979 Homecoming Queen. Her spirit was further exemplified with involvement in French, A Cappella Choir, and Student Congress.

Ginn Named Valedictorian

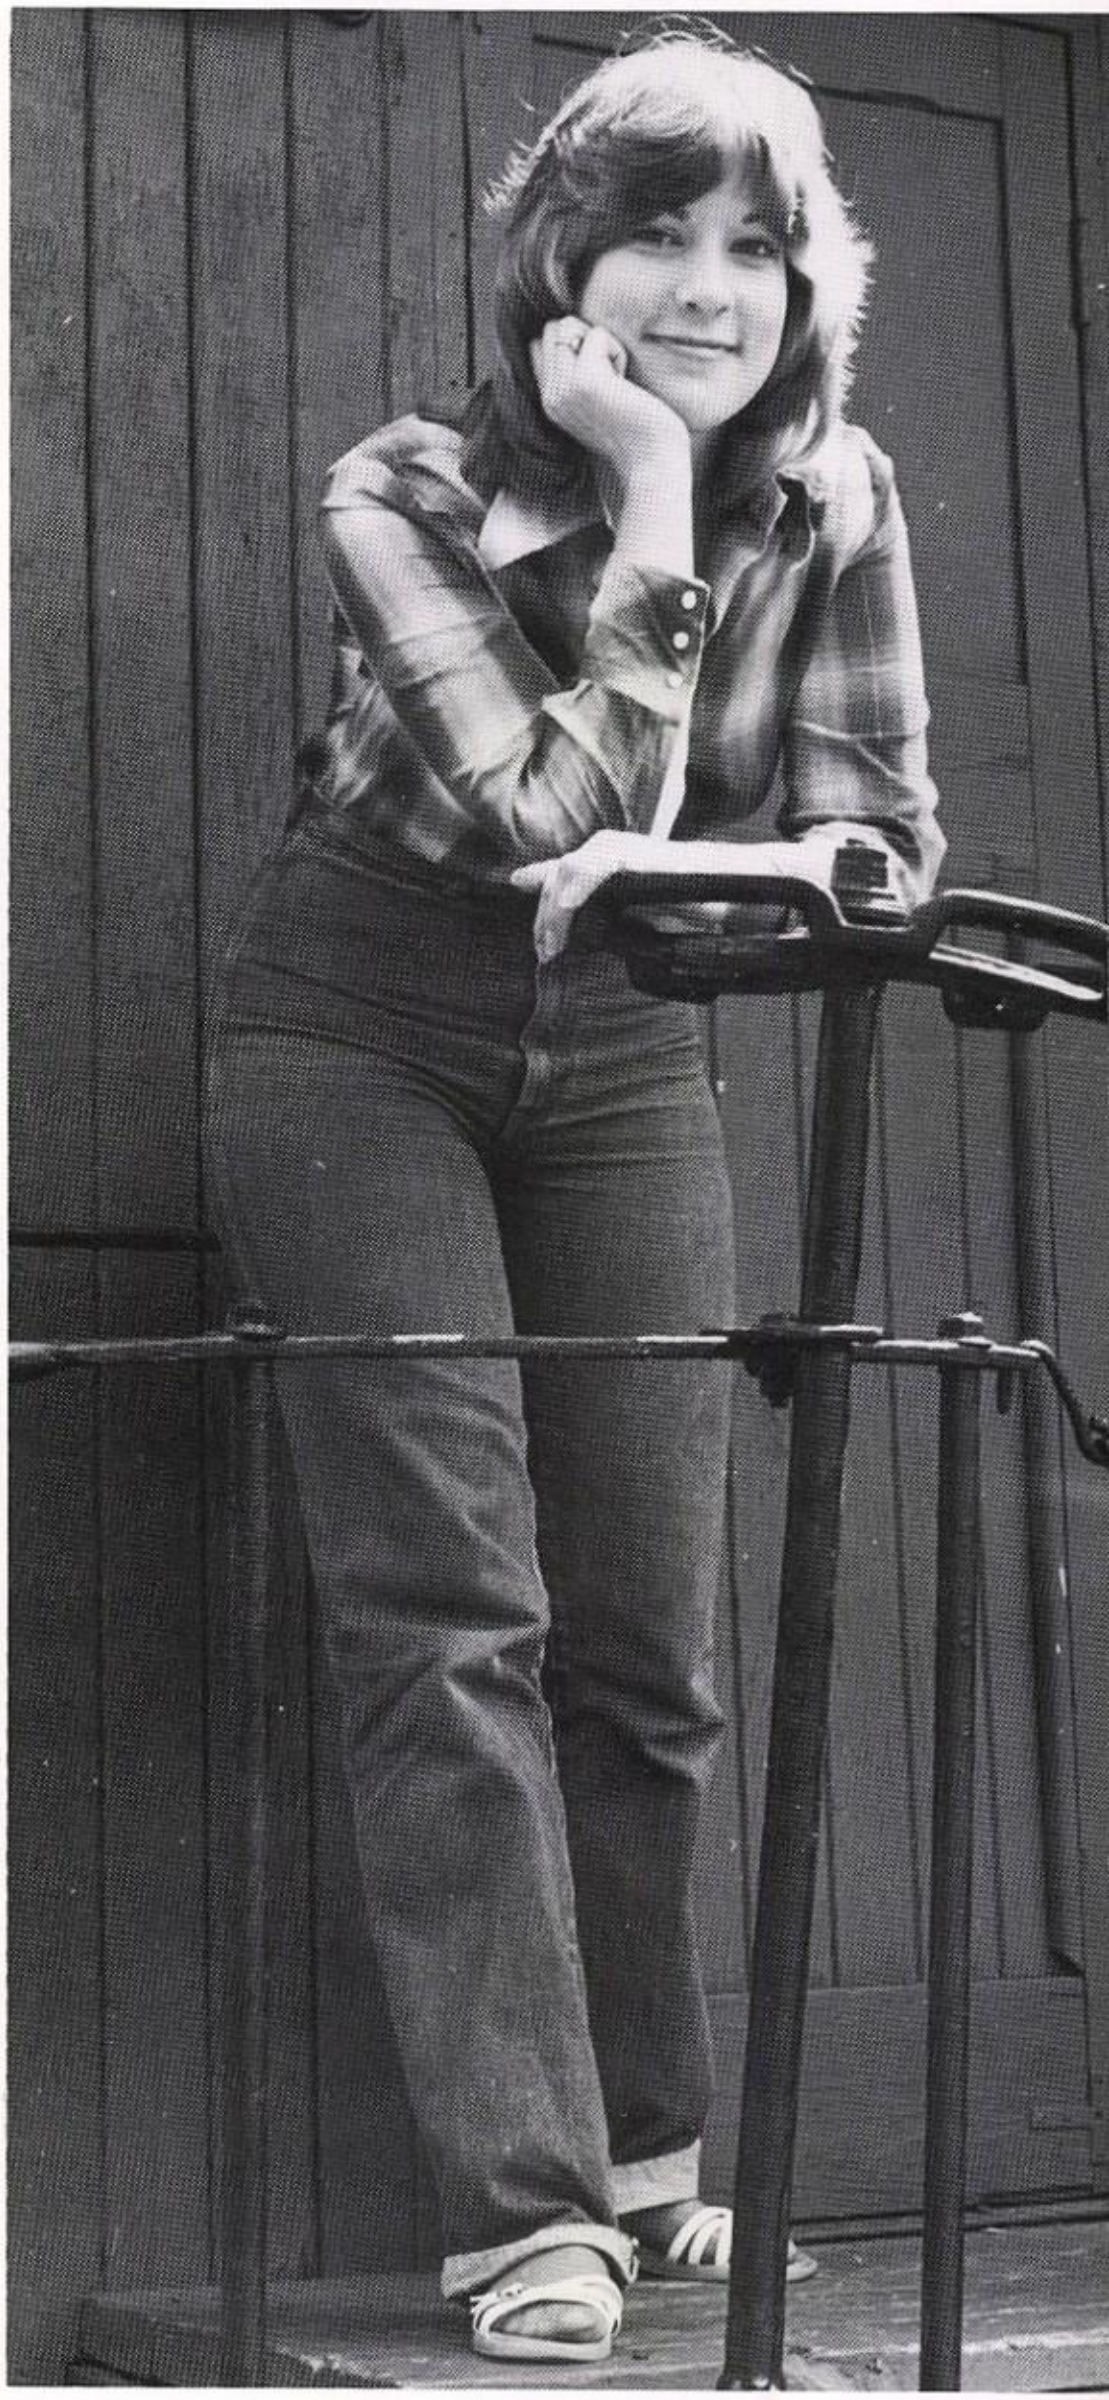
"The Investment . . . What will the dividends be?" Susan Ginn challenged the audience at graduation in her valedictory address.

With a "perfect" grade point average, Susan had an A+ in all classes, including all honors courses offered.

A Top 10 Activity Senior, she was president of American Field Service and social chairman of the National Honor Society. Roles in school productions earned her membership in Thespians. Other involvement included two years in band and a year in choir and journalism.

Susan won national recognition in English through NCTE and commended student status from NMSC.

Future plans include the study of pre-med at Baylor University.



Roblyer Takes Salutatorian

"The Debt . . . Is it paid in full?" This was the topic of Dwight Roblyer's talk at commencement exercises, May 29. Salutatorian of his class, Dwight graduated in the second position. He was awarded four scholarships to fund his college study in physics at Texas A&M University.

Editor of Texans Talk, Dwight was active in journalism three years, earning honor Quill and Scroll status. He was vice-president of the Science Club and a member of the National Honor Society and American Field Service.

Dwight was a finalist in the NMSC competition and earned a writing award from the National Council of Teachers of English.

In the spring, American Legion honored him with a service award.

Carola, Danielle Impressed with Texas

"Are you sure this is Texas? Where are all the little white fences?" Danielle Dawson, foreign exchange student from England, changed her preconceived ideas about America. Willingness of neighbors to help each other impressed Carola Wittwer from Germany.

Carola enjoyed being in choir and participating in "Celebration." Danielle's interests involved her in drama. She served as student director for "Alice in Wonderland."

"Danny" and "Toyota," as they were affectionately called, became Texans during their 10 months' stay; they took many new traditions and friendships with them as they returned home.

"Double, double toil and trouble, fire burn and cauldren bubble." AFS members cooked up a Halloween stew to get acquainted in October. Club activities began in the summer with the arrival of exchange students Danielle Dawson from England and Carola Wittwer from Germany.

Valentine's Day provided the perfect setting for AFS Day which promotes friendship and understanding between people all over the world.

Ms. Vaudrene Hunt's class won a steak dinner in the annual friendship link contest with $220.33. AFSers participated in Texan Day with an international foods booth.

Flags Sweep Texan Band Into Season

"OK Everyone ready for morning calisthenics?" Exercises, strenuous marching, standing stock-still at parade rest, and hours of music rehearsal were all part of the band's preparation for football season.

Extra practices began Aug. 27 and continued every Tuesday and Thursday thereafter. The reward came on Friday nights when the band performed many spectacular shows.

New flags were a visual asset to halftime entertainment. Ten girls were chosen to master twirling techniques.

Shows performed by the band included the ground breaking of the new city hall and a sales convention for Six Flags Inc.

Students then hung up their marching overlays and began preparing for concert season. At Castleberry Contest on March 18, the concert band received a superior rating in sight-reading competition and an excellent rating for prepared music. The symphonic band returned with two excellent ratings.

Superband met every Wednesday and provided music for the annual band-booster play. The stage band performed at the Miss Texan Pageant.

"Where are the mikes? We need to check roll." Microphones sometimes aided A Cappella Choir secretaries in their enormous task of locating 140 noisy bodies. As a result of great participation and expansion, A Cappella was split into two class periods. Unity was achieved by periodical combining of the separate choirs.

Performing at the dinner-theater on Nov. 2, new choir members gained musical experience early. A concert for a travel service reunion followed just one week later.

With the premiere of the Christmas musical "Scrooge" on Dec. 17 and 18, a new tradition began. Concerts by First Class and A Cappella Choir at First City National Bank and Tandy Center sparked a holiday mood.

Fellowship Displayed By Club

"Have a joyful Christmas and a peaceful New Year. Best wishes, Christian Fellowship." Teachers received cards prior to the holiday season from club members trying to exhibit Christian qualities at Sam Houston and within the community.

Sponsored by Mrs. Helen Drake, Christian Fellowship met monthly for a time of inspiration. Each meeting contained a devotional and a discussion of current events and the effects they have on today's students. Guest speakers were also a part of the program.

Activities included a trip to the Family Life Center at First Baptist Church. This multi-purpose facility provided members with a more energetic outlet for their feelings.

Job Experience Gives Many Opportunities

"Have you ever repaired a magneto? It's not as easy as it sounds." CVAE students tackled some difficult problems at area contests in February. Those who excelled traveled to San Antonio in May to compete on the state level.

Contests of skill included such categories as mechanical repair and construction and metal trades. Grocery checking and child care were areas of competition under cooperative training.

Students acquired experience in Coordinated Vocational Academic Education, a program in which they attended school in the mornings and held afternoon jobs.

"We're the ones who make Sam grand. We're the '79 Tex-Annes." The Tex-Annes lived up to this motto with plenty of smiles and enthusiasm as they welcomed Ms. Sandy Virden as their new sponsor.

Raising spirit at pep rallies, dancing at basketball games, and performing football halftime shows, such as the memorable high-kick to "Dallas," were just a few of the many activities in which Tex-Annes became involved.

January competition was the climax of the girls' hard work which began way back in the summer. The Tex-Annes performed a spectacular high-kick, a prop dance, and a jazz routine to "Vegas."

"Get your heads down quick!" This may sound like a warning from Chicken Little, but was actually just an anxious Texans Talk staffer finishing headlines.

New editions of Sam's paper appeared every two weeks and soon disappeared into the hands of faithful readers.

Article ideas were born at a staff meeting immediately after the previous issue. Allocations, interviews, ad sales, and layouts followed.

Ivy's typeset the paper, and then it was edited to its final form. Friday morning, the finished product arrived fresh off the presses of the Printing Center in Fort Worth and was ready for distribution.

Reporters, in constant search of that big "scoop," often made last minute changes to include a breaking story.

" . . . or how about a rainbow? Then we can use all these colors like chartreuse, arctic blue, buckskin tan, and yellow ochre." An appealing cover design was just one of the concerns the annual staff had in producing a yearbook.

Theme, layout, colors, and dedication were some of the decisions requiring a group effort.

In order to accommodate a variety of schedules, the Cherokee Staff was split into two class periods. Cooperation among those separated and working on the same section was necessary, with extra time spent during lunch.

Four deadlines, with the biggest in November, kept staffers busy as they compiled records for the end of an old and the start of a new decade.

Sam Houston's varsity football team surprised area predictors by finishing third in district play with an overall 6-4 season record. Though picked to finish last in district at the beginning of the season, Houston footballers rebounded to a 4-2 loop count.

The Sunset Bisons were the first prey to fall to the Texans as Sam gunned down its opponent rather handily, 28-7. Next on the list was Fort Worth Southwest, as the game of field goals ended in a 6-3 win for the home team.

Following two home contests, the team traveled to North Mesquite's new stadium where the goings were a bit tough. As a result, the Texan football team lost by a score of 26-13 to the Stallions.

Home sweet home, right? Well, Sam Houston's Homecoming spirit wasn't quite enough against the Denton Broncos. Although Sam won the statistics battle, the Broncs captured the game by a final count of 7-6. The Broncos scored in the third stanza and won the game with a crucial extra point.

Houston began district play with an upset victory over district foe Bowie. The Texans spelled out victory with a clinching 26 yard field goal late in the game to preserve a 10-6 victory over the previously undefeated Volunteer team. Continuing play against Arlington the next week, Sam fell to the city champions, 19-7.

After posting a 19-0 whitewashing of the Burleson Elks, Big Sam hosted eventual district champion Richland. The home team challenged the Rebels but fell short as Richland tacked on a late fourth quarter touchdown to stop Sam, 23-14.

In a game both opposing coaches termed as being a "game of pride," Sam Houston rallied to defeat the crosstown rival Lamar Vikings, 13-10, to wrap up third place in district. A stingy Texan defense forced five turnovers from the Vikes and included a goal line stand at the one to preserve the victory. Ending the year on a good note, the team thrilled a home crowd by wrapping up its season with a 10-7 win over a hapless Haltom team.

13 Receive Individual Recognition

All district coaches from 8-AAAA selected 13 from Sam Houston's football team for individual honors. Senior Robert Townley was selected for an offensive line spot on first team. Wide receiver Mark Farrar was also picked for a first team offensive position. First squad defensive titles went to Dennis Sheldon on the defensive line and Al Hemmle as a first team linebacker. Also junior Gerry Hill earned first team honors on defensive back field.

Second team honors went to defensive lineman Robert Curry and to linebacker David Acton. Honorable mention selections were Steve Roznos, David White, Rusty Rude, Joel Luce, Randy Rude, and David Hill.

Outstanding individual performances went to the following Texans: Mark Farrar as the leading receiver, Al Hemmle, Tommy Hobbs, and Trey Hillman for yards rushing, and Al Hemmle as the number one tackler. David Acton and Dennis Sheldon also provided key defensive play for the Texans.

Ending the season with a tie for district with Arlington High, the junior varsity football team finished with a season record of 8-4-1.

In the opening game of the season, the team recorded an 8-8 tie with Dunbar. During the second and third week, players divided into two teams, red and white. The red team won two games, beating Southwest, 33-20, and North Mesquite, 14-12. The white team was defeated by O. D. Wyatt, 20-7, and Mansfield, 6-0.

Sam opened district play by beating the Bowie Vols, 34-0. A disappointing loss followed the next week, as Arlington High beat the Texans, 16-7. The next week the JV players upped their district record to two wins and one loss by defeating the Burleson Elks, 16-0. On Oct. 25 a split team beat the Richland Rebels, 20-19, and lost to Weatherford in a close game, 6-3.

On Nov. 1, the B-teamers traveled to L.D. Bell for a non-district contest. Sam came home with a 16-0 win. Lamar traveled to Wilemon Field the following week for an important district game. The Big Sam victory gave the Texans a chance for the district championship. In the final game of the season, Sam defeated Haltom by a 27-14 score.

First Round Action Leaves Texans on Top

Although the girls' basketball team fell short of a district title, the Texans accomplished many goals that Coach Dixie Calahan had set for the squad.

Their season record was 19-10, bettering last year's slate of 9-18. The team won second place in both the Northlake and Plano tournaments. The lady Texans were honored with the sportsmanship trophy in the Arlington Classic.

The roundballers went undefeated in the first half of district play. It looked as if the district title were in reach, but the Texans were shocked with a loss to Arlington in the second round of play. The defeat resulted in a tie for first place.

The championship game was a disappointment for the Texans who lost the district title with a 46-33 defeat by the Colts.

Erratic may be the best word to describe the girls' junior varsity basketball team, according to Coach Cindy Duval. The team played exceptionally well at times and quite the opposite at others.

With an overall season record of 14-12, the girls' district slate totaled 8-5. Sam finished first in the Bowie tournament and captured the consolation trophy in the Trinity tournament with a win over Lamar High School.

The junior varsity roundballers lost to Bowie in the opening game of the district season. They suffered losses to Lamar and Arlington in both rounds of district action.

Up against strong opponents in pre-season play, the varsity basketballers finished up with a 5-8 record. The opening game was played at home with the team losing to Thomas Jefferson.

Sam's first victory came after a loss to L.D. Bell and an overtime loss to Denton. The win came at home against Bryan Adams, 52-48. Sam extended its winning streak by defeating a good Trinity team, 47-46.

Before competing in the Bowie-Houston Tournament, at which Sam won the consolation championship, the roundballers were defeated by Southwest, 54-44. Losses to Grand Prairie and Highland Park were followed by a win over W.T. White, 59-53. Sam's next victory was at South Grand Prairie as the Texans won 72-66.

Over the Christmas holidays the Texans participated in the Lions Club Tournament which was held in Fort Worth. Big Sam won the consolation championship by defeating Lamar in the final round.

Before Sam's win over Newman-Smith, 57-51, the Texans were defeated in Wichita Falls by Rider, 83-74. A new decade started off with a loss, as the Texans were on the short end in Lewisville, 79-72.

Finishing up the first half of district play at 3-3, the varsity roundballers alternated wins and losses.

Starting off at home with a loss, the roundballers were defeated by the Haltom Buffaloes, 48-43. Burleson was the next stop for Big Sam. In that game the varsity hoopsters defeated the Elks, 72-53.

Sam then traveled to a fired up Richland gym, but the team couldn't dampen the spirit and defeat came, 60-41. Lamar was Sam's next opponent. The Texans let the Vikes know that they wanted to play basketball as Sam won, 69-39.

Texas Hall was the site of the game with Arlington High.

Houston had trouble and was defeated, 50-37. Varsity cagers then played the final first half game against Bowie. A win over the Volunteers, 72-50 brought Sam's district record to 3-3.

District play was frustrating in the second half for the varsity netters, as the Texans came out with a 2-4 record.

Haltom was Sam's first opponent, and the Buffs also dealt the Texans their first loss, 51-49 in overtime. Burleson was the first of Sam's two wins. The Elks fell to Houston, 53-48.

The league leading Richland Rebels came to the Houston gym and sneaked away with a 68-65 win. Lamar defeated the Houston roundballers at the Lamar gym, 70-53.

In a close game against the Colts, the Texans were defeated in final 12 seconds, 52-51. In a wild game at Bowie, the Texans won the final game of the season, 61-56.

"It's not the record that counts but what the team will learn that's important." So commented Coach David Clyde at the basketball pep rally about his JV program.

JV players did have many opportunities to learn with 29 games, compiling a season record of 7-22. The Texans ended their exhibition against Lewisville with a record of 5-12.

The varsity-to-be started first half of district with a 41-40 win over the Haltom Buffaloes. Coming off the win with high hopes of a good first half record, the Texans were disillusioned, losing the next four games against Burleson, Richland, Lamar, and Arlington.

Haltom started off the second half of district play for the junior varsity. Big Sam came up only two point short as the Texans lost 38-40. Burleson then came to Sam's gym to play the JV team. Sam's team could have won the game at the free throw line but came up one point short in the contest. Ending the year with six straight disappointing losses in district play, Sam finished with 2-10.

Volleyballers Just Short of No. 1 Spot

Girls' varsity volleyball had a victorious year, despite the fact that there were only two returning varsity players. It was a season of rebuilding for the Texans, but with an 8-4 district record, they took the second place crown tied with Bowie.

The team started out the season with a loss against Arlington but came back to take Haltom, Burleson, Richland, and Bowie.

At the start of second half play, the Texans again lost a heartbreaking match to Arlington. This loss wrapped up district for the Colts, giving Sam second place once more.

With a season record of 16-5, the JV lost only to Arlington, Castleberry, and Richardson Pearce.

Due to volleyball's growing popularity, the Texans had enough girls to man a sophomore team also. Early district experience was gained as they split wins with Lamar and bruised the Colts with two victories.

Two swimmers, Tim Henz and Gina Lewis, paced a small but spirited team by advancing to the regional meet.

At the district meet, Henz received firsts in the 50 and 100-yard freestyle. Advancing to regionals, Henz placed fifth and did not qualify for state but was awarded a medal.

Lewis went to the regional meet by placing fifth in district. Her event was the 100-yard butterfly.

The city-wide banquet held April 18 saw several Texans win awards. Winning Super Sophomore Titles were Lynda Carter and Jason Sloan. Sloan and Barbara Southall won Most Improved.

Lewis and Henz were recognized as Most Dedicated and Outstanding Swimmers. For setting new school records in the 50 and 100-yard freestyle, Henz received an award. The team overall was presented with the Spirit Award.

Tennis Sparks Advancement

Through combined individual efforts in both doubles and singles, the varsity tennis team put out a superior season with an overall record of 4-8-2.

Players with the best doubles records included: Curtis Gilley and Brad Wayland, 7-6; Jerri Paup and Melanie Mason, 8-5. In girls' singles Kim Parker had the best overall record of 4-5.

In district play the Texans had an early peak in the first round winning three of their four matches. Later, the racketeers cooled off to only win one more match, but the season as a whole sparked a big advancement over previous years.

Soccer Squads Turn In Best Season Ever

Varsity and junior varsity soccer squads ended an outstanding season with a mark of 3-3-2, both finishing second in district play. Varsity players Eugene Roznos, David Engel, Mark Kundysek, and Danny Nascimbeni put out individual efforts which made this the best season at Sam. Junior Varsity kickers Doug Levesque, Les Breedlove, Jerry Wood, James Bybee, and Bobby Jach also showed impressive performances.

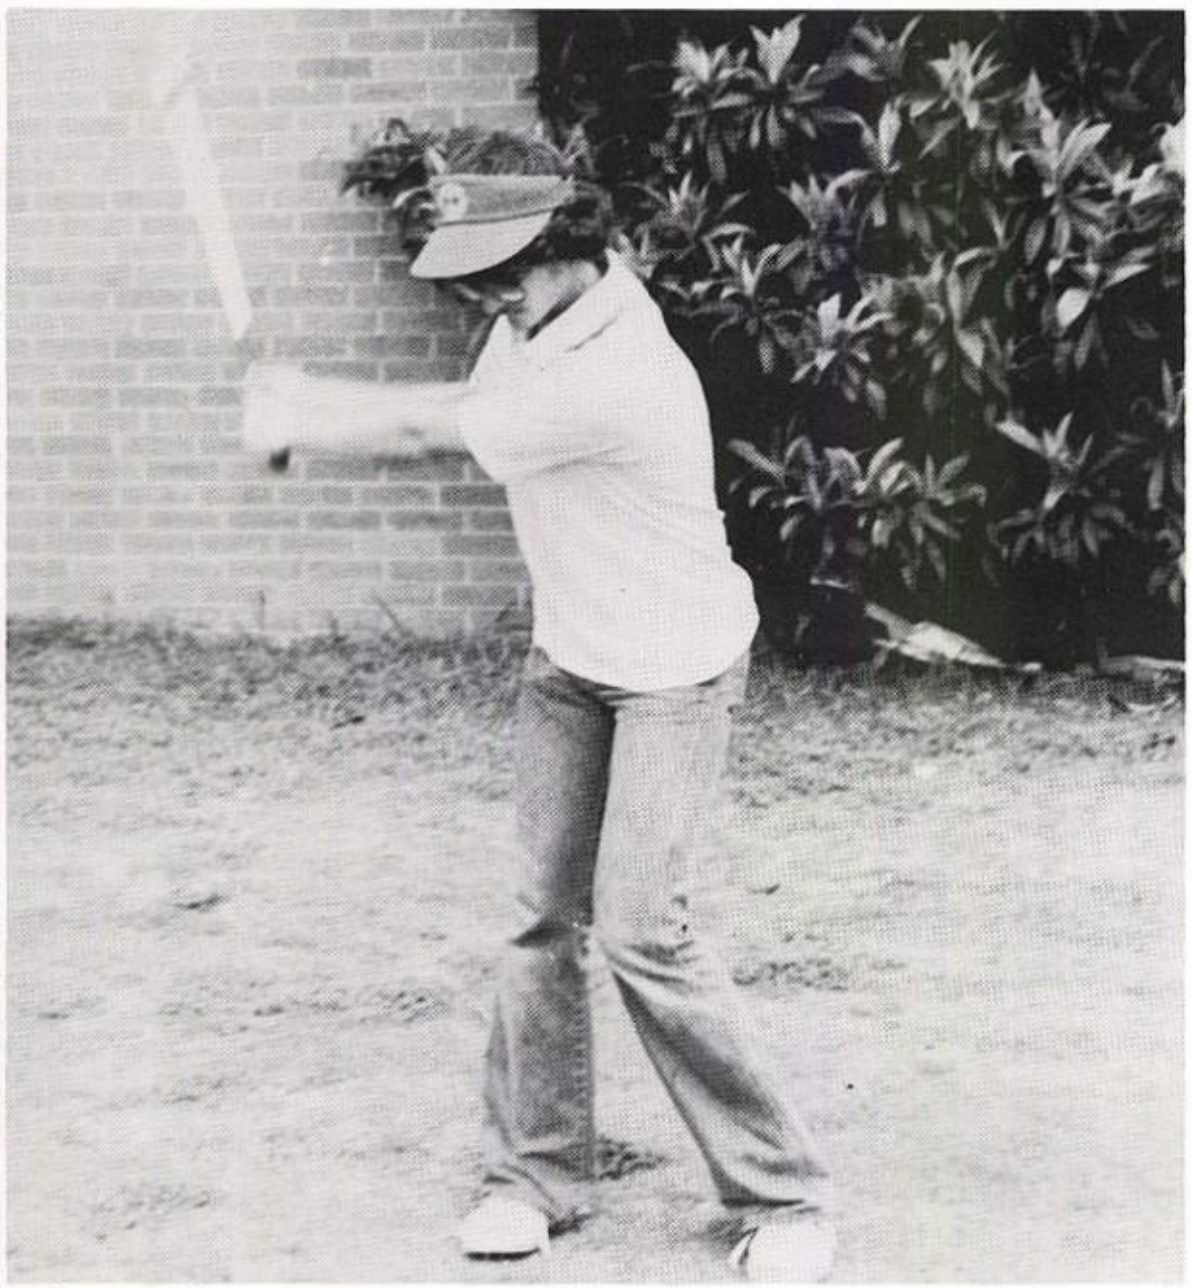
Building Year Takes Golfers to Oklahoma



A B

Rebuilding with a fresh start and a new coach, the golf team attended the Ardmore Tournament in Oklahoma. The all-night trip was a first in the history of Sam's golf teams. According to Coach Jay Cannon, golfers enjoyed playing the course as they gained added playing experience. As the season began, the mentor felt the need to develop team spirit and unity among the golfers. Although the team did not win a tournament during the course of the season, the golfers sported a fourth place finish in the Joshua Tournament, as senior Bryon Irwin won first medalist with a score of 71. Irwin was named as a second team all-district medalist, also.

Texan Track Sets Marks

Texan track members rewrote the record book this year, setting two new school marks. On March 29, in a track meet at Eastern Hills, the records were broken.

The first district meet of the year was held at Arlington High. The meet proved to be a good opening for the thinclads as they placed high in eight events.

Juniors Scott Caldwell and Mitch Pettigrew, along with senior David Hill, took first, second, and third in the 120 yard high hurdles. A third place was brought home by the sprint relay.

Pettigrew, Talley, Cooley, and Greg Lonon finished fourth in the mile relay. Kopp placed fourth in the mile run. Sheldon, Curry, Johnny Cobb, and Jamie Turner had a fourth place finish in the "Fat Man" relay.

Fem Thinclads Slowed by Injuries

First year girls' track coach Ms. Connie Thomas reflected on the year as one being filled with injuries. Despite this, two thinclads qualified for the regional meet in Denton.

Junior DeDe Pennie won the 440 yard run, while junior Gina Crain posted a 15.59 in the 100 meter hurdles. As a team, Sam Houston finished the district meet in fifth place.

Besides the two regional meet qualifiers, many other Sam participants placed in the district meet. The 440 relay team finished fourth while sophomore Rhonda Thomas placed fourth in the 100 meter dash.

In the field events, sophomore Rachel Daniels turned in two sixth place finishes in the shot put and the long jump.

Texan hardballers entered the start of the season with high hopes and great expectations following the team's summer American Legion State Championship, but unexpected injuries riddled the baseball squad's chances.

Nevertheless, Coach Tommy Cantrell, who was chosen District Baseball Coach of the Year, was proud of his team as the players held together in claiming a third consecutive district title for Sam Houston.

In fact, the hardballers had a good year in sporting a 22-9 overall season record plus winning the Grand Prairie tournament. In addition, four players made the All-District first team. Robert Townley, Mark Farrar, Glenn Hilton, and David Acton received All-District recognition.

The Houston hardballers swept the playoff series against the Vols with two excellent pitching performances. District Player of the Year Mark Farrar hurled a one-hit 4-3 win, and senior Chuck Mathews followed with a near perfect no-hitter for a 6-0 triumph.

Against Arlington Heights in bi-district play, the team's chances were limited as injuries took away Sam's bench depth. As a result, the Yellowjackets won the series in two straight contests.

Following a hard-fought nine inning 3-2 opening playoff game loss, Sam came home, hoping to even the series against Heights. Yet the "hope" was to be denied as controversial umpire calls turned back the hardballers' chances in a 7-4 season-ending loss.

Even so, Coach Cantrell put the situation in perfect perspective as he reflected in conclusion, "I was proud of the team this year because even with all the adversities, they still won the district championship and that's your team's main goal in the season."

The first district game against Arlington was a win for the Texans, 7-2. Four days later Sam's JV baseball team again defeated Arlington, this time by a 6-1 score.

Bowie was beaten on April 29 to increase the season and district records to 18-3 and 9-1. The JV baseball season ended with a shut-out over Burleson, 4- 0.

Familiar Faces Capture Staff Dedication

"To give of yourself . . ." That's the philosophy of two special teachers, Ms. Judy Baskey and Mrs. Betty Brown, who received the '80 Cherokee dedication.

Staff voting in late Fall determined the winners who were honored at the Awards Assembly, May 7. Co-editors Tricia Haney and Blake Seaton made the presentation which was highlighted by seven-foot sketches of each honoree.

Ms. Baskey had all the features of a good teacher and more. From attending plays with English students to typing Americans Abroad Applications, she still found time to make even Moby Dick interesting.

Her love for this school and her continuous support for all students were qualities which made her extra special to us.

Because she concentrated on one area of teaching, not all students had a chance to know Mrs. Brown. But, she has been behind Sam 100 per cent and has shared her optimism and enthusiasm since the school first opened.

She has involved her students in all school activities and has interested them in community projects, such as monthly visits to nursing homes and planning alumni dinners. It was not unusual to find Mrs. Brown helping other departments with typing or designing and printing programs. The school directory was a major undertaking.

To us, the dedication of our annual is our most meaningful award. We honor these teachers because we know that they care.

This our thank you. We care, too . . .

Two Win Board Seats

"If all goes well, next year we'll have paid teacher insurance." A tax-free insurance for teachers, as well as the familiar pay raise, were discussed by the School Board.

New members were elected in an April 5 election to replace Dr. J. M. Farrell and Mr. William Bondurant who did not run again. Mr. Gary McClaskey and Mr. Clyde Godfrey were elected to fill their vacancies. Mr. J. W. Counts was named superintendent after the resignation of James Covert.

Reflecting the rapid residential growth of Arlington, a number of new school buildings were opened. Young Junior High opened in 1980, and Wood Elementary became the first school south of I-20. In addition, four buildings, including James W. Martin High School, are scheduled to open in 1981.

"When you say 'Bud' you've said it all!" Mr. B. H. Remynse, more popularly known as "Uncle Bud," completed his eighth year as Big Sam's principal.

More spirited than the beverage, the "fearless leader" overflowed with pride and concern around Texan land. Enthusiastic about all aspects of school life, he thought nothing of driving through ice and snow to see the musical or rallying for school morale over the intercom. His involvement in pep rally skits was a treat during football season. It was not unusual to see him don a Halloween mask to scare a teacher and in return get hit with a pie. After "risking" his life while climbing a ladder at a sophomore pep rally, Mr. Remynse took a fall and stitches in his hand all in stride.

Events, Attendance Fill Trio's Calendars

Also filling vice-principal positions were Mr. Monroe Bicknell and Mrs. Tommie Williams. In addition to being dean of girls, Mrs. Williams was actively involved with Newcomers Club and a coordinator of the Miss Texan Pageant.

Mr. Bicknell, dean of boys, spent time counseling students and their parents. A major concern of his was the attendance records.

Counselors Lend Aid in Solving Problems

" . . . but according to this, I've got four lunches." In its second year in use, computer scheduling was not without its problems.

Counselors stepped in and gave advice whether the discussion was on class schedules, careers, or when to take the SAT. College preparation and family problems also concerned them.

Secretaries Behind Organization

" . . . a purchase order for 2000 balloons?" Some of the check requests which Mrs. Doris Brazzil received as bookkeeper gave her second thoughts about whether she worked in a high school or at a circus.

Secretaries were vital to the organization at Sam. In addition to managing the offices of the principal and vice-principals, they performed various other duties.

Responsibility for data processing, daily bulletins, answering telephones, and keeping attendance records rested on their shoulders.

As an added bonus to the job, secretaries slyly called the houses of the absent to make sure they were sick in bed and not at the State Fair or Fat Stock Show.

Nurses Stick It To Students

"Sorry, but sticking that thermometer under hot water won't be your ticket home." Mrs. JoAnn Owens, the head nurse, and Mrs. Pat Edney, the clinic aide, were in the front office to provide assistance.

Trips to the clinic required pink passes. Even one of those was not a guarantee for the rest of the day off.

Mrs. Edney reminded sophomores at immunization time. She also updated first-aid skills by periodically attending workshops on various topics, such as the Heimlech maneuver.

Sam Loses Vital Part of Library Staff

"Have you read "The Last Cow on the White House Lawn." "Sure. I used it in my junior theme."

Librarian Mrs. Louise Clark ano aids Mrs. Joyce Bent and Mrs. Mary Jackson referred to topics of research papers and new trends to choose books. Athletics was the most popular subject, but science fiction and fantasy were also in continual demand.

Microfiche, magazines which are miniaturized and printed on thin plastic cards, were a new addition to audio-visual resources. Texans bade farewell to Mrs. Clark in June. Her career extended through two fields, three schools, and 37 years. She taught P.E. in Castleberry and Grapevine before coming to Sam in '63 to accept the position of librarian.

Cafeteria Introduces Salad Bar

"Volley the ball, Dolly. Eat fish." Words like these might be found on a "nutritional" sign decorating the cafeteria. Managed by Mrs. Goldie Vaughn, the 12 cafeteria ladies catered to stomachs during the year.

More variety was added as a salad bar was introduced. This new alternative was especially popular with the teachers.

Serving approximately 850 people daily, the kitchen staff was kept on its toes at breakfast and lunch. Dressed-up on holidays and with good spirits every day, these ladies provided a much appreciated service.

Languages Create Bilinguals

"'Despirtese!,' 'Reveillez-vous!,' 'Wach auf!,' and Prasmee!'?" Foreign language takers, who found time to sleep in class, probably heard one of these wake-up cries from their teacher.

Innovative class work and games kept most students with their head up, though. Whether it was bingo, in an effort to learn numbers, or singing foreign Christmas carols, hundreds strove to build a second vocabulary.

Business Courses Enhance Executive Skills

"Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country." This may sound like a recruitment pitch, but it is just a typing exercise.

Business related classes, such as typing, were abundant at Sam. Advanced courses were offered for the more career-minded.

Students could also try their hand at accounting, shorthand, business law, office procedure, sales, and business management.

Fine Arts Demand Overtime

"You'd better keep my dinner warm; I'll be home at 10." Teachers and students involved in fine arts became accustomed to unusual hours. Schedules varied from hectic to impossible as productions and deadlines approached.

Departments under this classification sought to achieve the most professional product possible.

Whether concerned with one-act competition, halftime shows, art displays, "Celebration," or publications, extracurricular Texans settled for quality and nothing less.

Sciences Encourage Cut Ups

"I can't cut Fred. He's my friend!" Many biology students developed an attachment to the animals they studied. Fetal pigs, sharks, frogs, snakes, squid, and worms were dissected to teach students about the anatomy of different animal species.

Making electron orbitals from modeling clay was one exercise Mrs. Nelda Shipley contrived to illustrate atomic structures to chemistry students.

Physics students discovered the significance of "percent of error" when they experimentally determined the acceleration due to gravity to be 30 feet per second.

Mrs. Verba Boyes accompanied senior Dwight Roblyer to New Jersey in February. Dwight was the district winner of a visit to the Bell Systems Laboratories.

Mrs. Montie Sue Jay departed after three years to become a physicist for Rockwell International.

Computers Boost Math Enrollment

"I have a test next period and my batteries are dead! Can I borrow your calculator?" This plea was frequently heard from math students before algebra, trig, or calculus exams.

Approximately 1095 enrolled in math courses as they discovered the stiff requirements of many colleges. Specifics studied varied from triangles and tangents to computer programming.

A math day at NTSU on Nov. 8 was attended by students still in search of the black hole.

(D) Mrs. Ann Lewis is amused as her class sings "Here Comes Da Judge" during their mock trial proceedings.

World Chaos Inspires Discussion

"Order in the Court!" Civics teachers often found it difficult to maintain peace during mock trials, a favorite activity of students.

Although mandatory, social studies classes were extremely exciting in 1980 due to the world situation. Hostages in Iran, Russians in Afghanistan, and Campaign '80 were the subjects of heated class debates.

Questions such as reinstatement of the draft and the possibility of war caused many students to study American and world history in an effort to predict what will happen in the next decade.

Homemaking Helps Teach Basics for Life

"Dearly beloved; we are here to join this man and woman . . ." in a mock wedding. Students in home and family living learned how to handle the details of planning marriage. They also attended divorce court where they witnessed a custody hearing.

Speakers such as insurance salesmen and marriage counselors often visited home management and child development classes. Home furnishing students selected decor for the SHHS building trades house.

In November, homemaking students prepared a lasagna meal for the choir-FHA dinner theatre.

Special Education Develops Total Person

"Do you want to improve your ability to communicate with others?" Both hearing and deaf students learned a different method of transferring ideas in Ms. Carol Woodul's sign language class.

VAC concentrated on an education with work experience. Students had the opportunity to participate in true life situations, such as buying homes, apartments, and cars. Field trips to Atlas Match and Texas Employment Commission provided other important knowledge.

Trades Give Experience

" . . . now to the right . . . a little to the left . . . Watch out! That's my toe!" In addition to constructing a house, building trades class helped to relocate the water tower in front of the shop. Concrete supports were built to make it a permanent fixture.

A variety of shop and vocational classes were offered, many on a halfday basis. Students interested in hairlines or lines in general could take cosmetology or drafting. VOE satisfied the more office-oriented.

DE students explored the business world, while those in Radio-TV examined transistors. Other classes dealt with wood, metal, and automobiles. ICT, CVAE, and HECE were additional specialized courses.

Excuses Become Part Of Routine

"But . . . Coach, I can't suit up today. My biorhythm says that I'm at a physical low!" P.E. students made plenty of excuses for not sweating during the day.

Sam's coaches, scornful of the word "can't", usually coaxed the uninspired into a more sporting mood.

Activities varied from tennis, basketball, football, and baseball to volleyball, soccer, and track. A miniature Superstars Competition was held in the spring for prospective Lynn Swans.

Athletes who participated on school teams had their class during a specific period of the day, usually the last one.

Drill team and band provided first period alternatives for those interested in a different type of physical education.

We don't intend to leave your generation with a generation gap.

Your generation will probably need as much electricity as we're using these days—and perhaps more—for homemaking, jobs, education, health care and cleaning up the environment. At Texas Electric, we've developed long-range plans to meet future demands for electricity. Because of dwindling supplies of natural gas, we're in the process of changing the fuels we use to generate your electricity. Lignite coal now supplies more than 40% of your electricity. In 1981, nuclear power will be added as a generating source. We're building plants that use these more abundant fuels and planning others for your future.
You can be sure we don't intend to leave your generation with a generation gap.

With your help, our dreams became realities . . .
Our thanks to . . .

Our parents, who put up with our odd hours and contributed to our special projects . . . Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Haney and Mr. and Mrs. Walt Harbers for letting us use their homes to party . . . Mrs. Donna Kubiak for her help with the assembly . . . The faculty and staff for their help and support . . . Photo instructor Mr. Larry Cox and his classes, especially Barry Hines, Tim Henz, and Philip Bonds . . . Eddie Smith, Craig Coddington, Kelly Saltsman, Mike O'Briant, and John Bolding for their "expertise" in lighting and sound . . . Mrs. Mildred Russum and Mrs. Pam Rogers for bailing us out when our artistic ideas were bigger than our talents . . . Lemual C. Newman for providing the plane for our aerial shot . . . A-1 Rental for the use of their backhoe . . . Arlington Florist and Country Florist for donating carnations for Awards Day . . . All Cherokee Advertisers, without whose support we couldn't publish . . .

When Sam Houston's present building opened in 1970, streets to the school were unpaved, and most of the surrounding land was undeveloped. And thus, the "new" school was considered to be in the "country."

This aerial shot, taken in '73, shows a subdivision to the south and a small expansion to the west. Building had barely begun.

Seven years later, the school was no longer isolated. Building had taken such spurts, that all surrounding land was covered with houses or apartments. "Country" living no longer applied.

The rush to build changed the looks of Sam Houston, as it was no longer visible from Arkansas Lane. Taken in March of 1980, this photo indicates the beginnings of an apartment complex directly north of the school. Since the Spring, the villas have been completed. Building during the decade had finally surrounded the school.

Confetti, Fog Liven Prom

"I have one hour to go to the bank, tux place, car wash, florist, home, and to pick you up!" Last minute preparations were all part of making May 3 a prom night to remember.

About 375 people attended the $21 a couple event held at the Dallas Marriott. Ticket prices were offset by more than $2000 raised during Senior Class magazine sales in February.

After a steak dinner, The Party Machine provided entertainment and enticed many couples to stay until the end. Students and sponsors danced to a variety of music in a festive atmosphere of fog, confetti, and a light show.

"Your name and fame we will remember as our guiding light." Baccalaureate services on May 25 began the commencement process.

Senior Class officers presided at Texas Hall as Rev. Warren Olliff spoke on the "Magic of Believing."

At 8 p.m., May 29, the curtain rose revealing 514 red-robed seniors. Student Congress officers presented the program including the class portrait.

Principal B. H. Remynse's pockets bulged with Susan B. Anthony Dollars as he handed out diplomas.

As tassels were moved from right to left, the curtain closed on this chapter of the Class of 1980. "We'll remember thee!"

Many times we forget the things that shaped our courage;
what we too often wished to forget,
but later cherished as a memory.
Days of work and getting paid,
hassles and chores and troubles —
Dates that made our hearts leap or lonely moments of anger or sorrow.
The happiness was borrowed,
for just as it had begun,
we knew it would have to end.
Remember the people and the friendships that carried you through the events, remember how much they truly meant.
Don't lose sight of the past,
nor dwell on experiences gone by.
Grow and learn from things once seen,
and build for the moments
tomorrow will bring.
